Christoph Prégardien tenor
Christoph Schnackertz piano

Programme includes works by Britten, Bruch and Schubert.

Christoph Prégardien, one of the most distinguished lyric tenors of our time, has worked with conductors such as Barenboim, Chailly, Harnoncourt, Herreweghe, and Nagano.

His extensive repertoire includes the great baroque, classical and romantic oratorios and passions.

He is joined on piano by Christoph Schnackertz, a recipient of a scholarship from the Yehudi Menuhin LiveMusicNow Köln e.V., and is the prizewinner of the Felix-Mendelssohn-Bartholdy-Competition in Berlin.
